ONE DOLLAR A YEAR

HAPPENINGS ABOUT TOWN.

Mrs. James Pooser and children have gone to Charleston, S. C., to spend the summer with relatives.

Little Miss Louise Schoeffin, of Tampa, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. P. V. Leavengood.

Mr. G. B. Tankersley, of Coleman, was a prominent guest at the Montezuma Saturday.

Mrs. J. D. Pope and children are up for a short visit. They are stopping at the Montezuma hotel.

Mrs. Carry Long, who has been spending some time with her brother at Lake Sixteen, has returned home.

Mr. E. W. Agnew, after spending several days in the city returned to Lake Weir Saturday afternoon.

Mr. Dell Moody was up from Oklawaha station Saturday for several hours between trains.

Mrs. J. P. Hilburn and Master Oscar Hilburn, of Live Oak, are the guests of Mrs. G. W. Martin during the Epworth League conference.

Capt. John L. Inglis, of Jacksonville, Dunnellon and Port Inglis, was a distinguished visitor here on Saturday.

Miss Emma Nelson spent the past week at Sumterville, the guest of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Goree Nelson.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. V. Miller returned home Saturday from a week's fishing trip to Crystal River.

Mr. John T. Lewis, of Moss Bluff, member of the executive committee, returned home on the afternoon train Saturday.

Miss Florence Burnett came home Saturday from Tampa, where she has been on a visit to her sister, Mrs. Ernest McGahagan.

Mr. Charles Bell is a new arrival in Ocala and has a position with the Ocala Plumbing and Electrical Company.

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Clark of Martel, were in the city Saturday. Mr. Clark is the picture of health.

Miss Louise Nixon and Miss Inez Thomas, of Gainesville, are the guests of Miss Nixon's aunt, Mrs. George L. Taylor, for the Epworth League conference.

I have a good traveling position to offer the right party; experience unnecessary; must come well recommended and ready to start to work at once. Address, T. A. Roquemore, Ocala, Fla. 6-1-3t

Mr. Clifford Ayer came down from McIntosh Saturday afternoon to spend Sunday at home with his family.

Dr. T. K. Slaughter was in the city Saturday from Bellevue. He has just returned from a visit to relatives in Kentucky and Georgia, where Mrs. Slaughter is spending the summer.

Mrs. W. K. Zewadski and sons, Clarence and Olaf, who have been spending several weeks with relatives at Martel on Lake Sixteen, returned home Saturday.

Mr. J. M. Hillman and his attractive daughter Miss Annie Hillman, of Anthony, spent Saturday shopping in Ocala. Other Anthonyites in Ocala on Saturday were Messrs. Edd and Joe Iley and Mr. Lum Priest.

Mrs. Clifford L. Anderson and baby, of Holder, are in the city, and will spend a week here, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Anderson and Major and Mrs. L. T. Izlar.

Hon. Ed. L. Wartmann, of Citra, member elect of the legislature, was in Ocala Saturday to be present at the meeting of the executive committee and to congratulate his colleague, Mr. George G. Mathews.

Mrs. Sue D. Feaster, of Micanopy, and Mrs. Haygood, of Jacksonville, who have been visiting their sister, Mrs. T. M. Moore, in this city for several weeks, have returned to Micanopy. They were accompanied by their nieces, Misses Lucile and Sue Moore.

The following jolly young people composed a congenial party who went down to Lake Weir Saturday afternoon and spent Sunday enjoying the pleasures of the lake: Mr. and Mrs. Robert Flinn, Misses Blanche Ansley Meeks Ansley, Marion Gal-

Messrs. Smith and Roberts to Have Undertaking Parlors.

Messrs. Smit & Roberts, proprietors of the Ocala Furniture Company, have rented the store north of the Ocala House, formerly occupied by the Lang, Swartz & Co., and they are having the same beautifully fitted up as undertaking parlors.

This popular firm find that their business is increasing to such an extent that they feel justified in branching out in this line. There will be a small chapel in which funeral services can be held and a room for the display of coffins and other funeral goods, and an office. The rear of the building will be used as a store room by this firm.

Miss Inez Gates Gives Birthday Party.

Miss Inez Gates gave a birthday party on Thursday evening, June 14, at her home at South Lake Weir and it proved to be a very pleasant affair. Mrs. E. H. Gates and Miss Inez Gates rendered several fine piano solos, which added much to the pleasure of the evening. It also being Mr. Frank Adams' birthday, they celebrated it together. Games of various kinds were played. The song by Mr. Frank Adams was enjoyed by all. Miss Gates received several nice presents among them a fine gold watch and chair, presented to her by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Gates. Among the guests present were P. M. Oleson, J. Sigmon, Frank Adams and Kelum, Misses Lottie Beck, Sallie Sigmon and Myrtle Bishop.

Refreshments were served and the guests were entertained in a most charming manner.

Miss Gates is well known in Ocala.

The Victory of Mathews.

The victory won by Hon. George C. Mathews in the second primary in Marion county is most pleasing to his many friends in Jacksonville and throughout the state. As a member of the lower house of the next session of the legislature Mr. Mathews will be one of the most active lawmakers in the state. He is a brilliant man and an able debater, as well as a most worthy democrat.

He is already being mentioned in connection with the speakership, and if he is chosen he will fill the duties to the satisfaction of all the members. He is well qualified in every way for the position.—Jacksonville Metropolis.

Miss Sallie Camp Gives Dancing Party.

One of the pleasant society events of the past week in Ocala was Miss Sallie Camp's dance on Friday evening for Miss Louise Scott, of Ocala, Miss Mary Lou Hatchett, of West Palm Beach and Miss Fannie Rogers of Aiken, S. C., all as charming and attractive young debutantes as can be. They received their guests in the hall and were all most becomingly gown.

In the ball room to the strains of inspiring music, the guests, in spite of the warm weather, greatly enjoyed the dancing for several hours. Cooling beverages, ices, etc., were served during the evening and most attractive "sitting-out places were arranged on the verandas and on the beautiful lawns and the various charming little alcoves and cosy corners indoors were most pleasant places for chats and tete-a-tetes between the dancers.

There were about twenty-five young people present and the pleasures of the evening continued until the midnight hour.

Miss Camp was assisted by her sister-in-law, Mrs. Clarence Camp, who saw that nothing was lacking for the happiness of the young folks.

An Alarming Situation frequently results from a neglect of clogged bowels and torpid liver, until constipation becomes chronic. This condition is unknown to those who use Dr. King's New Life Pills; the best and gentlest regulators of stomach and bowels. Guaranteed by Tydings & Co., druggists. Price 25 cts.

A Piece of Good News.

There has been talk of the Central National Bank of Ocala going out of business, and a meeting of the shareholders was held on Friday to consider the matter of voluntary liquidation. It developed that the bank not only is slowly gaining headway, and now making a dividend, but has the prospect of regular increase in business. The stockholders therefore voted unanimously to keep the bank going, and will make no changes in the management.

Messrs. Munroe & Chambliss, who

Mr. and Mrs. Scott's Card Party.

Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Scott gave a large and beautifully appointed card party Thursday evening, June 14th, for their beautiful debutante daughter, Miss Louise Scott, her guest, Miss Mary Lou Hatchett, of West Palm Beach, their popular young son, Dr. Lawrence Scott, who has just graduated in medicine from the University of Maryland, and for Miss Alice Bullock, who is the attractive debutante daughter of Judge and Mrs. W. S. Bullock.

Receiving with them were Miss Sallie Camp, Mr. Harry Palmer and Mr. Guy Zewadski and present to meet them were the following young people: Misses Grace Hatchett, Sara and Louise Harris, Anna Mixson, Caro Liddon, Mattie Williams, Beatrice Sinclair, Esther and Janet Weathers, Florrie Condon, Hattie Dye, Annie Mathews, Annie Davis, Freddie Foy, Mary Anderson, Leafy Sylvester, Valeta Potter, Mamie Taylor, Ethel Robinson, Meta Jewett, Annie Atkinson, Eugenia Fuller, Mamie Wilcox, of Gainesville; Messrs. J. H. Taylor, W. D. Taylor, James Taylor, M. J. Roess, A. M. Goodwin, of Martel, Charles Stillwell, of Silver Springs, John Juhan, of Crystal River, R. E. Davidson, of Atlanta, Ben Rheinauer, Osco Zewadski, Bruce Meffert, John Pelot, James Hewitt, T. H. Harris, Robert Mathews, G. H. Ford, O. B. Howse, Stephen Jewett, Harvey Clark and E. J. Crook.

Mrs. Charles Rheinauer and Mrs. E. L. Carney welcomed the guests at the door and showed them to the dressing rooms, and afterwards to the rear of the hall, where Mrs. W. S. Bullock served the punch.

There were fourteen tables of progressive whist, and the scores were marked by Mrs. Carney and Miss Alta Pearson on the daintiest little hand-painted fan-shaped score cards, which were the work of Miss Scott. Miss Mary Anderson made the biggest score and was awarded a handsome white shawl. Among the gentlemen Mr. Robert Mathews made the top score, and his trophy was a silver file in a leather case.

After the games the guests all went out on the broad verandas where the refreshments were served.

There have been quite a number of delightful parties given during the past two weeks in compliment to this coterie of charming young girls, and Mr. and Mrs. Scott's card party was in every way a thoroughly pleasant and jolly one.

Miss Scott was pretty in white silk lingerie waist, with a white cloth princess skirt. Miss Hatchett wore a pink flowered tissue dress over pink taffeta with white roses in her hair. Miss Bullock's dress was a lavender flowered princess, and Miss Camp wore a pale pink crepe de chine with a wreath of pink rosebuds in her hair.

Cuban Diarrhoea.

U. S. soldiers who served in Cuba during the Spanish war know what this disease is, and that ordinary remedies have little more effect than so much water. Cuban Diarrhoea is as severe and dangerous as a mild attack of cholera. There is only one remedy, however, that can always be depended upon as will be seen by the following certificate from Mrs. Minnie Jacobs, of Houston, Tex.: I hereby certify that Chamberlain's Colic Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy cured my husband of a severe attack of Cuban diarrhoea, which he brought home from Cuba. We had several doctors but they did him no good. One bottle of this remedy cured him, as our neighbors will testify. I thank God for so valuable a medicine. For sale by all druggists.

The Gainesville Case.

The Gainesville case, mention of which we have already made, was tried Friday morning before Justice S. A. Bullock, and resulted in a mistrial. The Gainesville crowd left for their homes on the afternoon train.

Chief of Police Charles Pinkoson, of that city, was arrested on a charge of assaulting a young man by the name of Malphurs on the picnic excursion train between Silver Springs and Waldo several weeks ago. It seems that the young man was drinking and used abusive and profane language on the train and was finally, after some dispute, knocked down by Mr. Pinkoson, and the father of the young man swore out a warrant for the arrest of the chief of police.

Mr. S. L. Carter and Mr. George Broome, of Gainesville, defended Mr. Pinkoson, and he was prosecuted by Mr. R. B. Bullock, of this city.

Those who were here from Gainesville as witnesses were C. L. Kite, S. L. Carter, Jr., J. N. Baker, J. F. Pepper, W. N. Strickland, James Bodiford, Elmer McCreary and Lee Coulson.

DAVIS—JUHAN.

The wedding of Miss Allie Van Juhan and Mr. Albert C. Davis was a pretty event of Thursday morning, taking place at half-past ten o'clock at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Mattie Davidson Juhan, on Fort King avenue, in the presence of the relatives and very intimate friends of the young couple.

The ceremony took place in the parlor, which was very prettily and simply decorated for this happy occasion. Rev. William C. Lindsey, of the Presbyterian church, performed the ceremony in a most impressive manner.

The wedding march was skillfully rendered by Miss Eloise Miller. Miss Mary Juhan, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor, and she looked very sweet in a white dress with a pink girdle and sash and an armful of pink carnations. She entered with her brother, Mr. John Juhan and preceded the bride, who came in with her uncle, Mr. Emmett Davidson, of Atlanta, who gave her away. The groom had as his best man, his uncle, Mr. G. T. Maughs.

During the ceremony the bridal party stood under a marriage bell made of white roses and hydrangeas.

The bride wore a lovely white silk dress, round length, princess style, shirred at the waist line to fit the figure perfectly. The deep hand-made lace yoke was outlined with an exquisite bertha of real lace. She wore no veil, but carried a bouquet of bride roses, and was a picture of girlish loveliness.

After the ceremony the young couple were warmly congratulated and showered with good wishes. A dainty wedding luncheon was then served in the dining room. The bride's table was beautiful in its appointments of pink and green, and the smaller tables were also decorated with pink roses.

The following young girls served in the dining room: Misses Jean Austin, Ellen Clarkson, Etta Hood and Margaret Anderson.

Mr. and Mrs. Davis left over the Seaboard afternoon train for Jacksonville, where they will make their home. Mr. Davis being in the express service, running between Jacksonville and Tampa. The young groom is a nephew of Mrs. G. T. Maughs, of this city, and until a few years ago he made his home with his aunt.

Mrs. Davis is the older daughter of Mrs. Mattie D. Juhan, and has resided in Ocala for some years. She was a popular member of the younger set and will be very greatly missed by her Ocala friends.

Her going-away gown was a blue silk suit, made with an Eton jacket with hat and gloves to match. With this suit she wore a pretty white lingerie waist.

"The vows are said—
The potent vows that hold the happiness

Of these two souls, for weal or woe, till death do part.

The benediction falls—and out into the world they go, one flesh instead

Of twain; and in the heart of the young bride

Is welling up the "Jubilate," tuned To human love; and in the bridegroom's eyes

A look of tender strength and steadfastness

That says, "I will not fail thee, love, lean hard!"

And thus hand in hand, heart to heart, shoulder to shoulder, they step over the threshold of the old life into the new.

Mr. John R. Waterman, who has been in South America for the last eight years, has returned home, and has a good deal to tell of that rich and undeveloped land. He returned by way of Gainesville, Ga., where his brother, Mr. Rufus Waterman, resides, and was accompanied home by Mrs. S. E. Waterman, who has been visiting relatives at Gainesville, Fla. We shall have more to say in future issues of our paper of Mr. Waterman's impressions of the countries which he visited.

Senator and Mrs. J. H. Humphries passed through Ocala Friday afternoon on the Seaboard en route to their home at Bradentown. Mr. Humphries is the editor of the Bradentown Journal and he and Mrs. Humphries attended the meeting of the press association in this city and went with the editors on their trip to Taxaway, Hendersonville and Asheville. At the latter place they left the party and went to Washington, D. C., since which time they have been seeing the many beautiful and historical sights in and near the nation's capital.

MR. AND MRS. RHEINAUER ENTERTAIN AT CARDS.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rheinauer extended invitations for a card party on Wednesday evening, June 13th, entertaining at their beautiful home on Fort King avenue. Miss Louise Scott, Miss Alice Bullock and Miss Mary Lou Hatchett were the joint honorees, and invited to meet the guests of honor were about forty-five of the young society people.

Receiving with Mr. and Mrs. Rheinauer, Misses Scott, Bullock and Hatchett, were Messrs. J. H. Taylor, Harry Palmer and Guy Zewadski, and assisting in the various rooms were Mrs. G. S. Scott, Mrs. W. S. Bullock, Mrs. E. L. Carney, Mrs. M. Fishel, Miss Hohenburger and Miss Julia Ganz, of Germany.

Mrs. Rheinauer wore a beautiful white organdie dress, trimmed quite elaborately in yellow lace; the three younger honor guests, in dresses of white and light blue, looked especially attractive.

The diversion of the evening was whist played in progression, twelve tables entering the card contest. Twenty-five rounds were played, and the first prizes, a silver souvenir teaspoon and a cigar case filled with fragrant cigars, were won by Miss Annie Mathews and Mr. John Pelot. The booby prizes, a silver valise tag and a silver match safe, went to Miss Louise Harris and Mr. Harry Palmer. In the dining room before and during the games the punch was served by Mrs. Fishel and Miss Ganz, and the refreshments subsequent to the card games included delicious ice cream and cake.

The young people, who enjoyed the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Rheinauer were the following: Misses Louise Scott, Alice Bullock, Mary Lou Hatchett, Emily Ford, Loca Mae Easterling, Grace Hatchett, Sallie Camp, Sue Anderson, Sara Harris, Margaret Walters, Annie Davis, Freddie Foy, Leafy Sylvester, Esther Weathers, Janet Weathers, Valeta Potter, Mamie Taylor, Ethel Robinson, Meta Jewett, Annie Mathews, Hattie Dye, Beatrice Sinclair, Mattie Williams, Caro Liddon, Anna Mixson, Louise Harris; Messrs. A. J. McLaughlin, Alfred Beck, James Hewitt, J. H. Taylor, W. D. Taylor, James Taylor, Harry Walters, Osco Zewadski, Guy Zewadski, T. H. Harris, Robert Mathews, John Pelot, Ben Rheinauer, Harry Palmer, G. H. Ford, Harvey Clark, Stephen Jewett, O. B. Howse, and Dr. E. L. Scott.

Mr. Albert Graham Writes of St. Petersburg.

St. Petersburg, Fla., June 13, 1906. St. Petersburg tips her saintly crown to her sister cities and bids them follow her.

There is no boom here, but the city is rolling along at an easy pace, and is becoming quite a metropolitan city.

The citizens of St. Petersburg are wide awake and are continually adding fresh laurels and sparkling diamonds to her crown.

Attired now as she is—in a summer suit of green—St. Petersburg looks as sweet and queenly as a "sweet girl graduate."

Sitting on her queenly throne and Tampa bay, with the cooling Gulf of Mexico breezes fanning her brow, this southern Florida city is enjoying life while old Sol shines.

ALBERT A. GRAHAM.

Mr. L. S. Light made a splendid race for the legislature. In the first primary he lacked only a few votes of having a majority of all the votes cast, and in the second round lacked only eight votes of receiving the coveted goal. He received every vote of his own precinct and in the adjoining precincts received almost a solid vote. He certainly has good grounds for congratulating himself. His vote was in every way flattering.

We are glad that we have such an able tutor. We expect to learn a great deal. We have already been taught that "prohibition" does not mean "annihilation." The "annihilation" of an army does not mean the "prohibition" of an army. We have been taught that to "prohibit" one from entering one's premises means simply to "restrict" one's visits. We expect to learn a good deal about the English language, both as she is "writ" and as she is "spoke." We are in big luck.

Mrs. Thomas Sexton and children and niece, Miss Etta Hood, went to Floral City Saturday afternoon to spend a couple of weeks with Mrs. Sexton's sister, Mrs. Henry Clark. From there they will go to Fellowship to visit Mrs. Sexton's parents and other relatives.
